

TURN IDEAS INTO RESULTS.

84% of executives say that innovation is important to their growth strategy, but only 6% of businesses are satisfied with innovation performance (McKinsey).

What if you could crowdsource ideas from everyone within your organization and accurately identify which of those insights lead to increased revenue, competitive differentiation, and margin growth? It's time to turn disruption into opportunity and strategic advantage.

Use the power of crowdsourcing

- Leverage everyone's insight.
- Spot market trends.
- Incorporate best practices and improve processes.
- Discover the best user experiences.

Inside Microsoft Teams

- Collaborate in one shared environment secured in the Cloud.
- Save time with a tool that connects to your other Microsoft productivity apps so you can quickly access information.

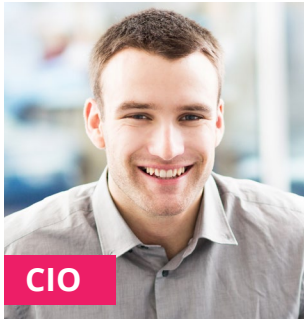

To bring ideas to life faster

- Simulate scenarios for different ideas and predict outcomes.
- Identify and promote the most promising ideas.
- Quickly develop business cases then select and prioritize proposals.

And lead in your market

- Keep innovating with a systematic approach to portfolio management.
- Track project results with native and configurable reports.
- Accurately evaluate indicators and predict return on investment.
